

Geraldine de Bastion

Geraldine is a bilingual political scientist with an intercultural background and international work experience ranging from net political human rights work to management consultancy on a ministerial level in Germany and abroad.

Geraldine is the founder of the Global Innovation Gathering, a network of grassroots innovators, social entrepreneurs, founders, and managers of makerspaces, hackerspaces, and innovation hubs. In addition she works with activists and bloggers around the world on digital rights issues.

Before co-founding Konnektiv Kollektiv GmbH, Geraldine worked as a consultant for information and communication technology and new media for development in Sub-Saharan Africa. She has worked for various governmental organisations, NGOs, and businesses focusing on digital transformation strategies. She is also a public speaker, curator and moderator for international and expert events such as re:publica GmbH. She holds a degree in political science from FU Berlin. She is also an honorary member of the Digitale Gesellschaft e.V.